Why try Adora?

Adora has a gourmet taste, texture and appearance.

Adora is versatile. It can boil, bake, fry and is salad ready.

Adora presents smooth bright skins which are perfect for cooking.

Adora has a thin skin and shallow eyes which makes it easy to peel.

Adora presents a bright yellow flesh for a stunning plate presentation.

Adora is naturally selected to have less carbohydrates than most potatoes.

Adora was selected first in international taste testing panels.

Adora resists gray coloring of flesh following cooking.

Always ask for Adora with your potato purchases to ensure access to taste and quality.
